NEW COURSE OFFERING FALL 2015

CHILDREN’S LITERATURE ECE 131/ENG 114

Read children’s literature happily—but critically—ever after!
Discover the Wonder and the Joy of Children’s Literature!

ECE 131/ENG 114 is designed to provide an introduction to literature for children and young adults. This course presents a critical approach to literature for children and young adults—its history, elements, function and literary value. The course examines the literature through an evaluation and exploration of authors and genres; and trends and developments in children’s literature. Prerequisites: ECE 101, ENG 101, ENG 102

This course will be offered online.
