A community conversation and action planning forum on:
Youth of Incarcerated Parents
Help to improve Hartford for all children!

Join us for a day-long discussion about the impact of incarceration on children, families, care providers, schools, and communities. We will be talking about the well being of youth of incarcerated parents, and what is currently being done to support them in the city and the state. Come and learn more about this important issue, and have a say in policy, action, and change!

Saturday, April 10, 2010
9 a.m. – 3 p.m.
Hartford Public Library
500 Main Street

Doors open at 8:30 a.m. for coffee and doughnuts
Lunch is included

Please register for this session by April 1, 2010. For further information or to register by phone, call Katy Snell at 860.695.6282. To register on-line, send an email with the information requested below to Ksnell@hplct.org. To register by mail, fill out the form below and mail it to Katy Snell, Hartford Public Library, 500 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06103.

Community Conversation and Action Planning Forum
Youth of Incarcerated Parents
Registration Form

Name: ________________________________
Address: ____________________________

Street
Town or City
State
Zip Code

Phone Number: ______________ Email Address: ________________________

The following information is not required, but would be helpful in creating diverse discussion groups.

Your ethnic/racial background __________________________ Your age: _______