THE ANNUAL HOLIDAY DINNER DANCE

Achieving the Dream is launching a Student Perspective Team for DREAM 2015. The Student Perspective Team will provide up to 6 students from active Achieving the Dream Institutions with the opportunity to engage significantly with the efforts both at their institution and across the National Reform Network. Selected students will engage in learning process that culminates in attending DREAM 2015 in Baltimore, Maryland from February 17-20, 2015.

Applications are due by close of business on December 15, 2014. All applications must be submitted to Achieving the Dream by a member of your institution’s Achieving the Dream Core Team. Questions about this opportunity should be addressed to Elyssa Shildneck, eschildneck@achievingthedream.org or Tyesha Wood (860) 906-5078, twood@capitalcc.edu.

AFSCME-Thurgood Marshall Fund Opportunity

AFSCME has offered summer internships and academic scholarships to students of color through the Union Scholars Program. The Union Scholars Program is a great way for students to get experience as frontline organizers AND earn money for college. Please share it with 2nd Year Community College Students who might be interested. You can also request copies of a fabulous brochure for distribution to your students by emailing Maria Ochoa at mochoa@afscme.org. Applications are due on February 28, 2015 and are available online at the TMCF website: http://www.thurgoodmarshallfund.net/unionscholar.
