CELEBRATE HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

LATINO
HERITAGE MONTH & BEYOND '16

*Latino Voices:
Roots and Rhythms*

Thursday, September 21st
Represent your Flag Day @ CCC

Joining LASA and International Club (I-Club) to represent your country by waving your flag at CCC. This event is an exceptional way to get to know students from all over the world. The overall goal is to promote international awareness with a view to multiculturalism. It is open to everyone and is designed to appeal to all students.

Wednesday, September 26th
PBS Documentary Black In Latin America

Join LASA, Black Student Union, and the International Club to view the PBS documentary about the Black Grandmas in the Closet in Mexico and Peru. Harvard Professor Henry Gates explores the almost unknown history of the significant numbers of black people the two countries together received far more slaves than did the United States brought to these countries as early as the 16th and 17th centuries.

Thursday, September 29th
Annual CCC Blood Drive

LASA will host an annual American Red Cross blood drive Thursday, September 29th. The blood drive will run from 10am-3pm, in the rooms 708. Walk-ins are also welcome! So please come and make a lifesaving donation. If you want to help out but cannot donate then please contact the Student Activities Office at (860) 906-5087 or dcurry@capitalcc.edu and ask about volunteering opportunities during the day of the drive!

Thursday, October 6th
Free HIV Testing for CCC Students

LASA will provide students at Capital Community College free HIV testing in collaboration with Latino Community Services, a local non-profit organization. The testing is safe, private and nothing ends up on your medical record. This free HIV testing allows students to take charge of their well-being and make safer sexual health habits for life. We are very pleased to offer free HIV testing to all students.

Thursday, October 20th
Taste of Latin America

The Latin American Student Association (LASA) is hosting Taste of Latin America, a cultural event that will showcase Latin American culture through food, live performances, acting and dancing. Doors open at 1 p.m. and guests will have the opportunity to try a selection of food from different Hispanic countries. All CCC students, faculty, staff and outside visitors are welcome to attend this event where the Hispanic culture is shared with the rest of campus. Get more info on Facebook.

For more information please contact Student Activities at (860) 906-5087 or dcurry@capitalcc.edu
