CAPITAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE
REPORT ON CAMPUS SAFETY

ISSUED SEPTEMBER 2012
FOR THE PERIOD OF
January 1---December 31, 2011

Capital Community College provides its report on campus safety in compliance with the "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime statistics Act". This report is available to any applicant, student, or employee who requests a copy. The report is published each September.

Capital Community College is a twelve story structure located at 950 Main Street in downtown Hartford. The College Department of Public Safety is located on the first floor of the main lobby in rooms 101 and 102. State Officers patrol the building and grounds in addition to electronic monitoring on a regular basis.

The Director of Public Safety/Security at C.C.C. is James Griffin. Mr. Griffin graduated from the Connecticut Police Academy and has special police powers granted by the state Commissioner of Public Safety under the provisions of Section 29-18 of the Connecticut General Statutes. Mr. Griffin supervises the security force which consists of Police, State Officers, and a private security company, selected through the state bid process. The current company is Command Security. The Public Safety/Security Department reports to Dean of Administration Lester Primus.

College students, employees, and visitors park in either the Talcott Street Garage at 1 Talcott Plaza, or at the Morgan Street Garage located at 155 Morgan Street. There are 89 spaces set aside for Capital Community College at the Talcott Street Garage. The Talcott street Garage is patrolled by state buildings and grounds officers whenever open. The security and administration of the Morgan Street Garage is by the Hartford Parking Authority. An additional 135 reserved parking spaces are available at 10 Columbus Street Boulevard. This is an outside parking area that is gated and patrolled by contract security and State Officers on bicycle at all times the college is open.

Any criminal or suspicious activity that takes place in the building, grounds or garage should be reported promptly to the Campus Police office at extension 5075, or by dialing ** from any college phone. All telephones in the building have the college's security number affixed. City emergency services (Fire-Ambulance) are reached by dialing 9-911.

The Department of Public Safety is in charge of the college's lost and found. Turn all items found on campus to this office. If you think that you may have lost something on campus, you should check with this office. Please continue to check with this office as your items may be turned in at a later date. All items turned in are secured in a locked office until returned or disposed of after a six month holding period.

In accordance with state law, Capital Community College has a smoke-free status. Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the college building.

Periodically the Department of Public Safety/Security will publish safety tips to encourage the college community to be more aware of safety. These tips are placed on bulletin boards throughout the college, or placed on the television monitors. Public Safety issues timely warnings when an issue poses a substantial risk of loss or harm to the college community. Security participates in the college's annual student orientation, held before fall semester, providing information about the college's security systems, policies, and emergency procedures. Informal security sessions have been implemented for college employees.

The College Department of Public Safety offers escorts to students, staff and guests to and from their vehicle parked in the Morgan Street and Talcott Street Garages. To request an escort, contact the Public Safety Office (860) 906-5075.

The college is open from 7:30 A.M. to 10:30 P.M. Monday through Friday, and Saturday from 7:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. when classes are in session. College Security is present at all times when the building is open for business.

No administrator of an institution of higher education shall interfere with the right of a student or employee of such institution to file a complaint with the State Police, local Police Department, or special Police force established under section 10a-142 of the Connecticut General Statutes concerning crimes committed within the geographical limits of property owned or under the control of such institution.

The State of Connecticut has a Sexual Offender Registry which contains the names of all the persons convicted of Sex Offenses. The registry can be viewed by anyone wishing to at <http://www.state.ct.us/dps/Sor.htm>. Capital Community College Public Safety routinely reviews the registry, and the college is notified if any sex offender registers for classes.

Sex offenders required to register under the terms of a state "Megan's Law" are also required to provide notice, as mandated under state law, of each institution of higher education in that state in which the offender is employed or is a student. (Refer to page 115 of the Student Handbook for further information)

Fifty Emergency Intercoms are located in the college positioned under blue lights. Each intercom connects directly to Public Safety, and interfaces with college closed camera security system. A Public Safety Officer will answer the call and respond promptly to any emergency.

It is the policy of the college to call the Hartford Police Department for any incident that requires police intervention. The Police Department's main H.Q, is located at 50 Jennings Road. There are several smaller precincts located throughout the city. The College Public Safety/Police have an excellent working relationship with the city of Hartford Police.

Capital Community College maintains a "Daily Crime Log". This log contains entries of all incidents reported to Public Safety. This log is updated on a daily, and is for inspection by any member of the public upon request during normal business hours.

The college maintains an extensive series of fire prevention and alarm devices, including sprinklers, extinguishers, alarms, and warning systems. A loud horn sounds, lights flash, and a verbal fire warning sound on each floor when an alarm is active. The college also performs a minimum of one "Fire Drill" each semester. A separate emergency plan is in place for the Children's Lab School located in the building.

Public Safety maintains compliance with all FERPA regulations. No student or employee's personal or identifying information is released to outside agency, entity, or unauthorized person or department within the college.

The Capital Community College department of Public Safety has specific policies concerning sexual assault and domestic violence. These policies are contained in the department policy manual under "Patrol Procedures" section 2-7. In addition to policy published on the college Website. These policies specifically state that all complaints of sexual violence and domestic violence will be investigated in a respectful, confidential, and through manner. The policy states that in addition to the CCC Public Safety investigation, the Hartford Police or Connecticut State Police presents the victim with several options for various referrals to additional sexual assault counseling, domestic violence counseling, various mental health services, shelters, and victim's rights. Capital community College will assist the victim in contacting these services. The college advises the victim of criminal protective orders, restraining orders, and out of state family violence protective orders, and will obtain an order if appropriate. The college offers assistance to victims of sexual and/or domestic violence support from initial investigation through the entire process. Capital Community College will investigate and make arrests where probable cause exists that a violation of an order has taken place.

Capital Community College will use a variety of measures to protect and follow up on all complaints of sexual violence. This will include in house discipline, monitoring, and use of the criminal justice system.

Capital Community College promptly investigates all reports of suspicious circumstances or missing persons. This policy is contained in the Departmental policy manual patrol procedures under section 2-19. The investigating officer shall be dispatched immediately. He shall notify the director of Public Safety of the circumstances. He shall enter the missing person as a FILE 6 MISSING PERSON IN NCIC. It is the policy of the department to contact the Harford Police or the Connecticut State Police in all cases that require further investigation.

Capital Community College has no dorms or on campus housing.

Capital Community College maintains an extensive array of Policy and Procedures and Notification processes in the event of an emergency. These procedures are intended to be far reaching to the college and surrounding communities reaching as many people as possible in a short time. Included in these notifications are procedures for immediate notification of Police---Fire---Emergency Services. All College Emergency Procedures are compiled and published on the college web-site in a comprehensive manual entitled "EMERGENCY OPERATIONS MANUAL". This manual includes internal as well as external notification policy. Included is specific information on EVACUATION PROCEDURES, BOMB THREAT PROCEDURES, and COLLEGE LOCK DOWN POLICY. Officers of the College Department of Public Safety perform annual training in each of these procedures. Training may include formal training at the Ct. Police Academy, internal training conducted by members of the department, and various drills, including unannounced fire drills. All officers are required to maintain annual certification in First Aid and CPR. All officers have received training in Emergency Text Alert Notifications.

It is College Policy that all notifications to the college and surrounding community will be made as soon as possible. Policy dictates that information concerning any situation presenting a threat of physical harm or property damage will be passed on to the community at once. The method of notification will vary according to the specific situation. Notification processes may include any or all of the following: personal notification, loudspeaker, television/radio, horn/sirens, telephone, public address system, college e-mail, or college emergency text alert system that sends an individual text message to any person that registers a cell phone onto the system. There is no cost for this service. Registration is encouraged and actively advertised with-in the college.

Dean of Administration Lester Primus and Master Sergeant James Griffin are administrators for the college notification systems.

ALCOHOL and DRUG POLICY

Capital Community College's standards of conduct are in compliance with Public Law 101-226, The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The standards of conduct prohibit unlawful possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, employees, or visitors on the college campus or at college activities. Any person knowingly and unlawfully possessing, using, transmitting, selling, or being under the influence of any dependency producing drug or alcohol on campus or at any college sponsored activity or event may be subject to disciplinary action.

SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

Capital Community College encourages victims of sexual assault to report the crime to the Security Supervisor on duty. Security will assist in filing a college incident report and contacting the Hartford Police Department or other appropriate agency. The college will provide counseling through the Counseling Center and/or Health Services and can provide information regarding other sources for help.

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment can take many forms, such as physical (touching, kissing, pinching), verbal (jokes, or sexual innuendoes), visual (display of offensive pictures whether printed or computer displayed), or threatening harassment (implied or explicit abuse which threatens a person who does not comply with such requests).

Capital Community College does not condone or tolerate any behavior by a college student, employee or visitor that constitutes sexual harassment. Should you find yourself in a situation you suspect may be a type of sexual harassment, you are urged to speak to the Academic Dean or the Director of Human Resources. Either of these persons will advise you of the proper channels available, and will respect your confidentiality.

Sexual Harassment as well as any reprisal or retaliation by an offender is illegal and punishable by law.

Use of the internet for viewing pornographic material or carrying on "chat" sessions is considered sexual harassment and is forbidden.

HATE CRIMES

Under the Clery Act, Capital Community College is required to report the listed crimes and other crimes involving bodily injury to a victim because that person was intentionally selected because of their actual or perceived race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability.

Hartford Police Department
50 Jennings Road
Hartford, Ct. 06120

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to request the crime statistics for the locations listed below for the 2009 calendar year. Pursuant to the federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security policy and Campus Crime Statistics (Clery Act), Capital Community College is required to compile and publish crime statistics. This report must contain statistics of specified crimes reported to local police agencies that occurred on or near campus and on college controlled property. The criminal offenses that the college is required to report are the following as defined by the FBI Uniform Crime Report: Murder: Non-Negligent Manslaughter: Negligent Manslaughter: Forcible Sex Offenses: Non-Forcible Sex Offenses: Robbery: Aggravated Assault: Burglary: Motor Vehicle Theft: and Arson. In addition, I need statistics concerning any of the above that manifest evidence of a Hate Crime.

Capital Community College is also required to request statistics for arrests in these categories: Liquor Law and Drug Violations, and Illegal Weapons Violations.

Therefore I request the required statistics for the following locations;

- The sidewalks directly in front of the college to the curb line to include Main Street, Market Street and Talcott Street
- Morgan and Talcott Street Parking Garages
- 950 Main Street
- 960 Main Street
- 10 Columbus Street Boulevard Parking Lot

I appreciate your cooperation in assisting us in complying with this federal law. If you have any questions, please contact me at (860) 906-5076.

Sincerely,

Master Sergeant James T. Griffin
