Capital Community College is a twelve story structure located at 950 Main Street in downtown Hartford. The College Department of Public Safety is located on the first floor of the main lobby in rooms 101 and 102. State Officers patrol the building and grounds in addition to electronic monitoring on a regular basis.

The Director of Public Safety/Security at C.C.C. is James Griffin. Mr. Griffin graduated from the Connecticut Police Academy and has special police powers granted by the state Commissioner of Public Safety under the provisions of Section 29-18 of the Connecticut General Statutes. Mr. Griffin supervises the security force which consists of police, state officers, and a private security company, selected through the state bid process. The current company is Command Security. The Public Safety/Security department reports to Dean of Administration Lester Primus.

College students, employees, and visitors park in either the Talcott Street Garage at 1 Talcott Plaza, or at the Morgan Street Garage located at 155 Morgan Street. There are 89 spaces set aside for Capital Community College at the Talcott Street Garage. The Talcott street Garage is patrolled by state buildings and grounds officers whenever open. The security and administration of the Morgan Street Garage is provided by Hartford Parking Authority. An additional 135 reserved parking spaces are available at 10 Columbus Street Boulevard. This is an outside parking area that is gated and patrolled by contract security and State Officers on bicycle at all times the college is open.

Any criminal or suspicious activity that takes place in the building, grounds or garage should be reported promptly to the campus police office at extension 5075, or by dialing  from any college phone. All telephones in the building have the college’s security number affixed. City emergency services (Fire-Ambulance) are reached by dialing 9-911.

The Department of Public Safety is in charge of the college’s lost and found. Please turn-in all items found on campus to this office. If you think that you may have lost something on campus, you should check with this office. Please continue to check with this office as your items may be turned in at a later date. All items turned in are secured in a locked office until returned or disposed of after a six month holding period.

In accordance with state law, Capital Community College has a smoke-free status. Smoking is not permitted anywhere in the college building.

Periodically the Department of Public Safety/Security will publish safety tips to encourage the college community to be more aware of safety. These tips are placed on bulletin boards throughout the college, or placed on the television monitors. Public Safety issues timely warnings when an issue poses a substantial risk of loss or harm to the college community. Security participates in the college's annual student orientation, held before fall semester, providing information about the college's security systems, policies, and emergency procedures. Informal security sessions have been implemented for college employees.

The college Department of Public Safety offers escorts to students, staff and guests to and from their vehicle parked in the Morgan Street and Talcott Street garages. To request an escort contact the Public Safety office at (860) 906-5075.

Fifty emergency intercoms are located in the college positioned under blue lights. Each intercom connects directly to Public Safety, and interfaces with the college closed circuit camera system. A Public Safety Officer will answer and respond at once to any emergency.

It is the policy of the college to call the Hartford Police Department for any incident that requires police intervention. The Police Departments main H.Q. is located at 50 Jennings Road. There are several smaller precincts located throughout the city. The College Public Safety/Police have an excellent working relationship with the City of Hartford Police.

Capital Community College maintains a “Daily Crime Log”. This log contains entries of all incidents reported to Public Safety. The log is updated daily and is open for inspection by any member of the public upon request during normal business hours.

Transportation to area hospitals is provided if required. Public Safety will assist the victim in contacting these services. The college advises the victim of criminal protective orders, out of state family violence protective orders, and will obtain an order if appropriate. The College offers assistance to victims of sexual and/or domestic violence support from initial investigation through the entire process. Capital Community College will investigate and make arrests where probable cause exists that a crime or violation of an order has taken place. All Public Safety officers receive domestic/sexual assault investigation and follow-up training annually. Master Sergeant Griffin is the campus contact person in matters of sexual assault/domestic violence.

Public Safety conducts a series of sexual assault prevention, situational awareness, self-defense classes each semester to assist staff and students avoid becoming a target of violence. Education on applicable Connecticut general statutes and current case law is included.

Public Safety uses various measures to protect and follow up on all complaints of sexual violence. This will includes college sanctions, monitoring, and criminal justice system referrals.

Capital Community College maintains an extensive array of policies, procedures, and notification processes in the event of an emergency. These procedures are intended to be far reaching to the college and surrounding communities contacting as many people as possible in a short time. Included are procedures for immediate notification of Police---Fire---Emergency Services. All college emergency procedures are compiled and published on the college Website in a comprehensive manual entitled “Emergency Operations Manual”. This manual includes internal and external notification policy. Included is specific information on evacuation procedures, bomb threat procedures, and college lock down policy. Officers of the College Department of Public Safety perform annual training in each of these procedures. Training may include formal training at the Connecticut Police Academy, internal training conducted by qualified dept. members, and various drills, including unannounced fire drills and shelter-in-place drills. All officers are required to maintain annual certification in First Aid and CPR. All officers have received training in emergency text alert notifications.

It is college policy that all notifications to the college and surrounding community will be made as soon as possible. Policy dictates that information concerning any situation presenting a threat of physical harm or property damage will be passed on to the community at once. The method of notification will vary according to the specific situation. Notification processes may include any or all of the following: personal notification, loudspeaker, television, radio, horn/sirens, telephone, public address system, college e-mail, or college emergency text alert system that sends an individual text message to any person that registers a cell phone onto the system. There is no cost for this service. Registration is encouraged and actively advertised.
