ALCOHOL and DRUG POLICY

Capital Community College’s standards of conduct are in compliance with Public Law 101-226, The Drug Free Schools and Communities Act. The standards of conduct prohibit unlawful possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, employees, or visitors on the college campus or at college activities. Any person knowingly and unlawfully possessing, using, transmitting, selling, or being under the influence of any dependency producing drug or alcohol on campus or at any college sponsored activity or event may be subject to disciplinary action.

SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

Capital Community College encourages victims of sexual assault to report the crime to the Police Supervisor on duty. Security will assist in filing a college incident report and contacting the Hartford Police Department or other appropriate agency. The college will provide counseling through the Counseling Center and/or Health Services and can provide information regarding other sources for help.

SEXUAL HARRASSMENT POLICY

Sexual harassment can take many forms, such as physical (touching, kissing, pinching), verbal (jokes or sexual innuendoes), visual (display of offensive pictures whether printed or computer displayed), or threatening harassment (implied or explicit abuse which threatens a person who does not comply with such requests).

Capital Community College does not condone or tolerate any behavior by a college student, employee or visitor that constitutes sexual harassment. Should you find yourself in a situation you suspect may be a type of sexual harassment, you are urged to speak to the Academic Dean or the Director of Human Resources. The college strongly encourages the reporting of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual assault, and intimate partner violence, as an effective means of taking action by reporting such acts to the appropriate officials and pursuing criminal or disciplinary remedy or both.

Dean of Students-----Doris Arrington-----Room 212-----ext. 5085
Director of Human Resources-----Josephine Agnello-Veley-----Room 214-----ext.5002
Director of Public Safety-----James Griffin-----Room 102----- ext.5076
Title IX Co-coordinator-----Rita Kelly-----Room 800----- ext. 5133

Sexual Harassment as well as any reprisal or retaliation by an offender is illegal and punishable by law.

Use of the internet for viewing pornographic material or carrying on “chat” sessions is considered sexual harassment and is forbidden.

Mandated reporting requirements of the Child Protection Law requires a report be made to the Connecticut Department of Social Services when the college receives a report that a person under the age of eighteen years of age may have been sexually assaulted. College employees who are designated as Campus Security Authorities under the Jeanne Clery Act have a duty to report information of a possible sexual assault regardless of the age of the reported victim. The College also employs individuals who are members of professions that are mandated reporters under Connecticut law, such as early childhood professionals, nurses and police. In order to comply with the ethical requirements of their professions and the law, any such professional who receives a report of sexual violence may not be able to maintain the confidentiality of the reported violence.

All reports of sexual violence will be thoroughly investigated by college Public Safety, Dean of Students, and Title IX coordinator. Persons are urged to report the incident as soon as possible. Capital Community College puts no time limit on acceptance and investigation of incidents. However, timely reporting tends to have a very strong, positive impact on the fairness and success of the investigation. Recollections may fade, witness become inaccessible, and physical evidence becomes unavailable with the passage of time.

Capital Community College has a variety of resources available on campus and in the community to assist in dealing with sexual violence. These resources are available whether or not the incident occurred on campus or off campus. These resources include, but are not limited to: Administrative remedy, Law Enforcement, Counseling, various Domestic/Sexual Violence prevention and assistance partners. Capital Community College also provides several on-going educational and awareness programs to the college to include Situational Awareness and Self-Defense for women and “See Something. Say Something”, active bystander training. Members of the college Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) receive additional annual training and updates.
