

MEDICAL ASSISTING

Medical assistants are the first face of the healthcare team that the patient interacts with.

Certificate 2 full-time semesters +
1 semester of externship

Associate Certificate + 30 credits of General
Education

From checking blood pressure to insurance billing, medical assistants utilize customer service skills and critical thinking to provide quality patient care in the medical office.

Certificate in Medical Assisting

(Recommended) - First semester

(Recommended) - Second semester

MDAS 1033 Clinical Medical Assisting	Wednesdays 9:30am-1:15pm or 5:30pm-9:30pm	MDAS 2042 Clinical Procedures and Practices	Tuesdays 9:30am-1:15pm or 5:30pm-9:30pm
MDAS 2050L Principles of Pharmacology Lab	Mondays 11:00am – 12:15pm	MDAS 2045 Clinical Laboratory Procedures	Thursdays 9:30am-1:15pm or 5:30pm-9:30pm
MDAS 2050 Principles of Pharmacology	Online Asynchronous	MDAS 2016 Electronic Medical Records	Online Asynchronous
MDAS 1011 Administrative Medical Assisting	Online Asynchronous	MDAS 1012 Medical Insurance and Billing	Online Asynchronous
MDAS 1025 Medical Terminology for Clinical and Administrative Professions	Online Asynchronous	 Sarah Zorn szorn@ccc.commnet.edu (860) 906-5136   Program Coordinator

Third semester

MDAS 2095* Medical Assisting Practicum/Externship *Must receive a C or better in all core courses listed above.	160 hours of unpaid internship at a medical office during business hours.
--	---

The medical assisting program prepares students for entry-level medical office positions. Many graduates aspire to gain experience in the medical field to continue their education into management, nursing, sonography, physician assisting, or other degree programs.

Kristin Moreland
KMoreland@ccc.commnet.edu
(860) 906-5040

Guided Pathways
Advisor I

Associate of Science Degree in Medical Assisting
General Education Requirements

English Composition 3 credits	Mathematics 3 credits
Arts and Humanities 3 credits	Scientific Reasoning 4 credits
Social and Behavioral Science 3 credits	Oral and Written Communication 3 credits
Additional General Education 3 credits	Electives 6 credits